All varieties are true to name, but, if in digging and handling an error is made, the mistake will gladly be rectified.

Orders must be in early, as Iris will be dug in July and August.

A small deposit is required on all orders.

Collections of both named and unnamed varieties can be supplied at reduced prices.

Any Iris not in my list will be gladly procured at producers' catalog price.

New and Rare varieties are added to my collection each year.

Visitors are welcome to my garden at any time.
